

Liz Graffeo

Senior Associate

Denver

Biography

Liz Graffeo advises both public and private companies on debt and equity securities offerings, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate governance matters.

She has a particular focus on real estate investment trusts (REITs) and companies in the real estate industry. Her practice includes drafting securities filings, advising on corporate governance matters, compliance with stock exchange requirements and Section 16 matters, and counseling fund sponsors.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Liz worked at another international law firm where she concentrated on securities and general corporate matters.
