

Shaun Cook

Associate

London

Biography

Shaun Cook is an Associate in Hogan Lovells' business restructuring and insolvency team, having trained with at the firm. Shaun has experience of a broad range of finance matters, including a secondment to the Banking team in our Washington DC office.

His burgeoning practice is across a variety of areas such as transactional work including large scale cross-border restructurings, acquisition financing and formal insolvency procedures as well as regularly providing advice to clients on a range of technical issues.

Representative experience

Acting for a syndicate of European banks on the restructuring of €200m facilities provided to a blue-chip European pharmaceutical company.

Acting for a syndicate of bank lenders on the £2bn debt restructuring of a major UK privately-owned construction group.

Advising the lenders and subsequently the administrators in the pre-pack sale and administration of Conviviality Group.

Advising lenders on the acquisition financings of a leading UK gym chain and a European food manufacturing group.

Phone

+44 20 7296 5955

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

shaun.cook@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English

Practices

Business Restructuring and Insolvency

Areas of focus

Creditor Representation in Restructurings and Insolvencies

Dawn Raids

Loan Portfolio and Distressed Debt
Transactions

Providing board advice to the directors of a number of companies, including a provider of private ambulances to the NHS and a major garden centre chain.

Education and admissions

Education

Natural Sciences Experimental Psychology, Sidney Sussex College,
Cambridge, MA Hons
