

Anneke Baran Altieri

Associate

Washington, D.C.

Biography

Anneke Altieri provides practical legal and policy solutions to clients at all levels of the food supply chain. She is committed to helping clients navigate the complex state and federal regulatory landscape, without sacrificing business innovation.

Anneke advises clients on U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) labeling and advertising requirements, food safety issues, and enforcement actions. Anneke also has experience counseling clients in the consumer product, pharmaceutical, and health care industries and maintains an active pro bono practice.

Drawing on previous regulatory experience with the Department of Homeland Security, Anneke understands the nuanced intersection of government and industry. Before arriving at Hogan Lovells, Anneke graduated from the University of Virginia School of Law, where she was a Fellow for the Legal Research and Writing Program and served on the editorial board of the Virginia Law and Business Review.
