

Impact of the coronavirus outbreak on employment relationship in China

17 February 2020

On January 31, 2020, the World Health Organization has announced the outbreak of novel coronavirus (2019-nCov), sourced from Wuhan, as a Public Health Emergency of Concern. To minimize the personnel mobility and to curb the epidemic spread, local regulators have issued various notices and rules regarding cessation of work and stabilization of employment relations.

Click here to read the full article.

Contacts

Sherry Gong

Partner

> Read the full article online