

Val Delp

Senior Associate
Philadelphia

Biography

Val Delp translates her technical knowledge into practical advice for public and private companies on a range of corporate legal matters. Her experience ranges from transformative cross-border transactions to day-to-day governance and securities issues.

Val has a proven record of effectively executing complex transactions, including global reorganizations, spin-offs, and mergers and acquisitions. She also guides clients through capital raising activities such as equity and debt offerings. Clients appreciate that Val exhibits the intellectual agility and business awareness needed to get the deal done. Public companies also rely on Val to help them navigate the changing landscape of corporate governance, securities law compliance, and SEC reporting.

Val maintains a diverse pro bono practice, representing asylum seekers, assisting nonprofits with organizational governance matters, and providing estate planning services for low-income seniors.

Before joining Hogan Lovells, Val worked in the Washington, D.C. office of an international law firm where she advised clients on a range of corporate and securities matters.

Prior to practicing law, Val worked in both the U.S. Senate and U.S. House of Representatives and spent
