Biography

Employment law is said to be a complex, ever changing area, which regularly confronts companies with new challenges. Anna Huber supports you in overcoming these challenges by creating solutions that get your job done, while protecting your brand reputation and employee relations.

Anna advises our clients on a wide range of employment law issues for several years. Regardless of whether it is about the negotiation of settlements of interest or social compensation plans, the implementation of a new remuneration or personnel deployment system – you can trust Anna to find applicable solutions and to represent your interests in negotiations with employees, works councils and their advisors, with skill and experience, without forgetting the human factor of her work.

Furthermore she efficiently and smoothly resolves any kind of disputes with employees, where she can draw on her substantial court experience – when necessary. Anna also advises companies on how to comply with data protection regulations and gives lectures on this subject (e.g. in Brazil). In the context of companies merger or acquisition, she provides legal support regarding employment matters. Her client portfolio includes in particular the insurance industry as well as the start-up sector.
