As a partner in our Disputes team in London, Jennifer regularly works with her clients to resolve complex cross border litigation, and has extensive experience of running internal and regulatory investigations and enforcement actions by both civil and criminal authorities in the UK and internationally. Jennifer has particular experience working with clients from within the financial services sector and has also represented individuals in criminal and regulatory investigations.

Jennifer is dual qualified in England & Wales and Hong Kong, after spending two years in our Hong Kong Disputes team. Her financial services focus has been further enhanced by time spent within the legal departments of three major international financial institutions.

Technology is influencing all areas of law, including litigation and investigations.
