

Daniel Dehghanian, LL.M. (Anglia Ruskin University)

Partner

Dusseldorf

Biography

Daniel Dehghanian has been advising clients on international M&A transactions and other strategic challenges for over a decade. Having executed deals on almost every continent for clients from all over the world, Daniel has developed broad "all-terrain" capabilities to help you navigate your deal and achieve your entrepreneurial goals.

Clients and team members highly value his pragmatism and his capability to break complex issues down to the essentials.

Over the past years, Daniel focused on helping large German corporates with their ventures abroad, especially in the life sciences industry. He is also active in the venture capital space, advising founders, investors and family offices in the context of developing and growing emerging companies. Daniel has recently also been involved in a number of share deal transactions in the real estate sector, covering primarily hotel and office properties.

He furthermore has vast experience in advising on joint venture transactions, public takeovers, post acquisition restructurings and general corporate law matters.

Daniel is a member of our Global Life Sciences
