Biography

In the increasingly complex world of financial services, Bob Juelke serves as a trusted adviser to public and private companies navigating the constantly changing business environment.

Having completed numerous deals in the insurance and investment management industries, Bob's mergers and acquisitions practice involves representing both buyers and sellers in a broad range of transactions. In addition, he has handled numerous insurance portfolio transfers through complex reinsurance transactions. On the finance side, he collaborates closely with issuers on public offerings and private placement transactions involving common equity, preferred equity, and debt securities.

Bob is a longtime legal adviser to numerous middle-market companies, representing them in connection with their SEC reporting obligations and general corporate governance matters.
