

Dr. Nadine Otz

Senior Associate

Munich

Biography

As a member of our highly respected Strategic Operations, Agreements and Regulation team, Dr. Nadine Otz is constantly entrusted with international procurement and distribution matters, including product related regulatory issues.

Nadine helps in particular with all questions of (international) contract drafting, purchasing and sales, distribution, cooperation, research and development, marketing and consumer protection law. She designs, reviews and negotiates commercial contracts of all kinds and advises on the (re)structuring of distribution systems. She coordinates multi-jurisdictional reviews of regulatory issues and advises in the context of corporate transactions. Nadine was seconded to the legal department of a worldwide leading high-technology company as well as an automotive supplier where she could deepen her industry expertise „on the pulse of the operative business.“

Before joining our firm, Nadine worked for a mid-sized law firm focusing on commercial and corporate law. She studied at the University of Konstanz and Santiago de Chile. In Chile, she worked on constitutional rights for a public research institute. During her legal traineeship she joined the public law group of an international law firm in Berlin and the German Agency for International Cooperation (GIZ) in Nepal. She wrote an international law thesis on state immunity and
