

Evan Guimond

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Evan Guimond represents clients facing investigations and enforcement actions brought by the Department of Justice, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN), and congressional committees.

Evan works closely with public and private companies, as well as individuals, guiding clients through their most difficult legal questions. In counseling clients to comprehensive resolutions, Evan frequently manages the demands of parallel criminal and civil proceedings.

Evan regularly assists clients in the food industry in criminal and other enforcement investigations involving the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. Evan also counsels financial institution clients facing regulatory enforcement investigations under the Bank Secrecy Act, and advises clients on BSA/AML compliance. Additionally, Evan has significant experience representing clients facing congressional investigations, including preparing clients for congressional testimony.

Evan also maintains an active pro bono practice. He is engaged in a broad range of pro bono matters including capital punishment, immigration, and efforts to uphold reasonable gun regulations. Evan has particular experience drafting amicus briefs on behalf of pro bono clients in cases involving the Second
