

Katherine (Katie) A. Nelson

Senior Associate

Denver

Biography

Katie Nelson focuses her practice on complex intellectual property and commercial litigation. Her background in patent, trademark, and copyright litigation, as well as technology-oriented consumer, data privacy, and products liability litigation, serves her clients well.

Katie worked during law school as a judicial intern for the Honorable Christine Arguello, U.S. District Court Judge for the District of Colorado. In this role, she drafted orders and bench memoranda. She also served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Richard Gabriel of the Colorado Court of Appeals, where she drafted predisposition memoranda.

While in law school, Katie was managing editor of the University of Colorado Law Review. She also served as a student lawyer in the entrepreneurial law clinic at the University of Colorado, where she assisted Colorado entrepreneurs with entity formation and intellectual property planning. In addition, Katie helped launch a transactional pro bono initiative to help indigent Colorado clients. She joined Hogan Lovells as a summer associate in 2011.

Representative experience

Regularly advises major tech company in complex

Phone

+1 303 454 2539

Fax

+1 303 899 7333

Email

katherine.nelson@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Consumer Law

Copyright

Intellectual Property

Patents

Privacy and Cybersecurity

Trade Secrets and Confidential Know-how

Trademarks and Brands

Products Law

intellectual property and commercial litigation.

Latest thinking and events

- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - IPMT Newsletter - Spring 2014 Intellectual Property Alert

Industries

Consumer

TMT

Areas of focus

Product Litigation

IP Litigation, Arbitration, and Alternative Dispute Resolution

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., University of Colorado School of Law, 2013

B.A., The University of Texas, magna cum laude, 2008

Bar admissions and qualifications

Colorado
