

Jennifer Staniforth

Associate

London

Biography

Jennifer Staniforth advises major financial institutions, payment providers, and other lenders on regulatory, commercial, and transactional issues.

Jen has spent time in-house on secondment at a major UK bank and understands the challenges clients face in the regulated financial services sector.

Jen is able to assist on all sector-specific regulation including the Consumer Credit Act, the Payment Services Regulation, BCOBS, CONC, and MCOB, as well as the impact of unfair terms, consumer rights, and AML on the financial services sector.

Representative experience

Drafting terms and conditions and other customer facing documentation for UK banks.

Advising UK banks on compliance with PSD2, the Consumer Credit Act, and the Payment Accounts Directive.

Co-ordinating various multi-jurisdictional reviews for lenders in relation to regulatory compliance and the launch of new products.

Spending time on secondment to the retail division of a major high street bank.

Phone

+44 20 7296 2000

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

jennifer.staniforth@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English

Industries

Financial Institutions

Areas of focus

Anti-money Laundering

Consumer Finance

Education and admissions

Education

Latest thinking and events

- Blog Post
 - FCA finalised guidance on fairness of variation terms in financial services consumer contracts: the devil's in the detail
- Blog Post
 - FCA proposes to extend FOS jurisdiction to cover bank transfer fraud
- Blog Post
 - MLD5: strengthening the fight against money laundering and terrorist financing
- Blog Post
 - ISO 20022: BoE consults on introduction of a common global payments messaging standard

B.A., University of Cambridge, St Catharine's College, 2014

Memberships

Law Society

Court admissions

Senior Courts of England and Wales
