

Anne W. Fisher

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Clients turn to Anne Fisher for counsel and representation on trade issues, including U.S. export control laws and immigration matters, economic sanctions, and customs.

She helps clients in education, technology, aerospace/defense, energy, and pharmaceuticals – ensuring they remain compliant with the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), the Export Administration Regulations (EAR), and the economic sanctions programs administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC).

Anne assists in preparation and submission of voluntary disclosure reports to government authorities and prepares commodity jurisdiction and classification requests from U.S. government agencies. She also develops, implements, and improves effective trade compliance programs, and educates clients on issues relating to customs law, including valuation, country of origin, and classification issues.

Anne helps clients in connection with transactions implicating national security reviews conducted by the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS). She also assists clients with immigration matters, and assists companies and nonprofit organizations in sponsoring individuals for
