

Matthew Harris

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Matthew Harris focuses his practice on cross-border transactions. He has represented multilateral and development finance institutions in a variety of complex financings and advised foreign companies on international asset acquisitions and joint venture arrangements.

Matthew advises lenders, investors, and commercial developers in connection with the acquisition, finance, and development of domestic and international infrastructure projects. He serves clients in a variety of industries, including renewable energy, LNG, telecommunications, transportation, and aviation.

Matthew is active in pro bono matters and regularly advises nonprofit organizations on the requirements for incorporation, registration, and compliance to receive 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status.

Latest thinking and events

- Hogan Lovells Publications
  - Brazilian government lifts cap on foreign ownership of Brazilian airlines Infrastructure, Energy, Resources, and Projects Alert

Phone

+1 202 637 6653

Fax

+1 202 637 5910

Email

matthew.harris@hoganlovells.com

---

Practices

Infrastructure, Energy, Resources, and Projects

Corporate

Commercial

Transportation

---

Areas of focus

Automotive Regulatory

Rail

---

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., Georgetown University Law
Center, 2012

M.Sc., London School of Economics and Political Science, 2009

B.A., American University, 2006

---

Bar admissions and qualifications

District of Columbia

New York

---