

Dr. Lukas Claasen, LL.M.

Associate

Munich

Biography

Lukas Claasen advises national and international investors in connection with real estate transactions, in particular with regard to due diligence investigations, as well as on issues of commercial tenancy law. He further provides advice on property and asset management agreements.

Before Lukas joined our Munich office, he was a research assistant in the real estate teams of two law firms in Dusseldorf.

During his legal clerkship, Lukas worked for the German Consulate General in Atlanta, Georgia (USA) and for an international commercial law firm in Dusseldorf, where he gained experience in real estate law.
