

Kristina Mackuliakova

Senior Business Lawyer
Frankfurt

Biography

Kristina Mackuliakova advises national and international clients, including Fortune 500 and DAX 30 companies, on issues of white-collar crime and compliance.

Her work focuses on the organisation and conduct of internal investigations as well as the preparation of communication with authorities. She has specific expertise in the area of project management as well as in the supervision of dawn raids. In addition, Kristina has an in-depth experience in working on post-investigation civil litigation procedures.

Kristina studied at the Charles University in Prague, the Ludwig Maximilian University in Munich and the University of Melbourne. She also holds an LL.M. in European Law from the Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas. During her studies, Kristina interned at the United Nations in Geneva. Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Kristina worked for an international law firm and a European regulatory agency, both based in Paris.

Representative experience

Supporting a medical device manufacturer during dawn raid by authorities regarding allegations of corruption.

Coordination and support in post-investigation civil

Phone

+49 69 962 36 0

Fax

+49 69 962 36 100

Email

kristina.mackuliakova@hoganlovells.com

Languages

German
English
French
Slovak
Czech

Practices

Investigations, White Collar, and Fraud

Industries

Automotive
Life Sciences and Health Care

litigation procedures.

Supporting various major companies from the automotive industry on compliance topics and large scale internal investigations.

Supporting leading companies in the automotive industry on internal investigations and compliance issues, including support in dawn raids by authorities.

Supporting a client on conducting an investigation into potentially inappropriate behavior by employees in relation to clinical trials and related communication with Lithuanian authorities.

Coordination and conducting a comprehensive business partner due diligence in more than 60 countries for a leading company in the pharmaceutical industry.

Areas of focus

Bribery and Corruption

Agency Investigations

Dawn Raids

Competition Compliance

---

Education and admissions

Education

LL.M., Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas, 2017

M.A., Charles University in Prague, 2013

---