

Chika S. Seidel

Associate
New York

Biography

Chika Seidel has experience litigating and counseling clients on matters involving life sciences and pharmaceutical patents.

Chika's ability to communicate fluently in Japanese and English, combined with her first-hand experience in chemical and biochemical research, has allowed her to successfully counsel clients in various matters including patent litigation, inter partes review (IPR), due diligence in mergers and acquisitions (M&A) transactions, pre-suit investigation, and patent prosecution before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO).

Prior to law school, Chika was a scientific adviser and patent agent at an intellectual property law firm in New Jersey. In law school, Chika was a judicial extern for the Honorable Patty Shwartz on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and the Honorable Peter G. Sheridan on the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey. Chika also served as the executive editor of the Seton Hall Law Review.
