

Safe Harbor Invalidated – What Next?

6 October 2015

On 6 October 2015, the Court of Justice of the European Union declared the EU-US Safe Harbor framework invalid as a mechanism to legitimize transfers of personal data from the EU to the US. This decision effectively leaves any organisation that relied on Safe Harbor exposed to claims that such data transfers are unlawful.

We have developed a short one page summary outlining the effects and a suggested plan of action.
