

The logo for Hogan Lovells, featuring the name in a bold, black, serif font on a yellow rectangular background.

Hogan
Lovells

[International Trade Alert] What's a President to Do? Options for Further Easing U.S. Sanctions Against Cuba

08 12月 2015

International Trade Alert

During a roundtable discussion at The Brookings Institution on December 7, Hogan Lovells Partner Stephen Propst presented a new paper on the president's legal authority to further ease U.S. sanctions against Cuba.

Read More: What's a President to Do? Options for Further Easing U.S. Sanctions Against Cuba

> Read the full article online