

Anup Bhargava

Anup Bhargava, is currently one of the Executive Director Dornier Group GmbH which provides consulting and engineering services for Energy & Infrastructure.

Anup is an Energy specialist with over 30+ years of experience including corporate level positions in power generation, transmission & distribution, EPC and technology suppliers. He also has significant Asia & Africa international power project development and implementation, working with Westinghouse, GE, IHI and Jindal Group. He is now focussing of providing future energy & infrastructure solutions through group companies expertise and experience. Today, he will speak about his experience in using low carbon technologies combining Solar PV and Energy Storage Solutions, especially on IFC Solar scaling projects