

Law of Reinsurance, 2016 ed.

By Graydon Shaw Staring and Dean Hansell

Thomson Reuters Westlaw announces the publication of the 2016 edition of its book on reinsurance, the foremost treatise on the highly specialized field of American reinsurance law, co-authored by Hogan Lovells' Dean Hansell.

Topics are thoroughly illustrated by cases cited throughout the text.

- Part I. Nature and History of Reinsurance
 - Chapter 1. General Introduction
 - Chapter 2. Types of Reinsurance and Their Uses
- Part II. Legality and Legal Premises of the Contract
 - Chapter 3. Jurisdiction
 - Chapter 4. Governing Law
 - Chapter 5. Regulation and Legal Standing
 - Chapter 6. Insurable Interest
- Part III. Negotiation and Contracting
 - Chapter 7. Brokers and Agents
 - Chapter 8. Utmost Good Faith (Uberrima Fides)
 - Chapter 9. Representations and Disclosures
 - Chapter 10. Rules Relating to Both Representation and Disclosure
 - Chapter 11. Formation of Contracts
- Part IV. The Contract
 - Chapter 12. Contract Terms
 - Chapter 13. Interpretation and Construction
 - Chapter 14. Commencement and Termination
 - Chapter 15. Particular Clauses and Interpretations
- Part V. Losses, Liabilities, and Claims
 - Chapter 16. Liabilities
 - Chapter 17. Claims and Recoveries
 - Chapter 18. Following the Settlements of the Reinsured
 - Chapter 19. Insolvencies
 - Chapter 20. Remedies, Generally
 - Chapter 21. Arbitration and Arbitrators; Fundamentals
 - Chapter 22. Arbitration Proceedings and Awards
 - Chapter 23. Terrorism And War Risks
- Table of Laws and Rules
- Table of Cases
- Index

Softbound print volume, eBook, and online on Westlaw Next

*Call 1-800-328-4880
or visit store.westlaw.com to order*

750+ pages