

Hogan
Lovells

Blurred Boundaries

The second edition: the latest developments in class actions, multi-claimant actions, and cross-border litigation in the EU and U.S.

Contents

Introduction	3
EU update
The build-up for collective redress mechanisms in Europe	4
In the pipeline: An EU-wide representative action blurring the boundaries	5
A first for over 5 million claimants in the UK, with no end in sight	6
Class actions now have a general framework in France	7
The Netherlands, experimenting with “U.S.-style” class actions	8
2018, a year of change for litigation in Germany	9
Speeding up actions in Poland	10
Actions for financial and banking services contracts on the rise in Spain	11
Reform in Italy could reverse current lack of interest in class actions	12
Anti-trust follow-on litigation in the EU	13
Data-related class actions in the EU	14
U.S. update
Multidistrict litigation in the U.S.	15
The far-reaching implications of the U.S. Supreme Court’s opinion in Bristol-Myers Squibb Co. V Superior Court	16