

John Shea

Government Relations Manager

National Association of State Aviation Officials

John serves as the Manager of Government Relations for NASAO. He is responsible for directing the implementation of all federal legislative and regulatory priorities for the association. Before joining NASAO in 2017, Shea worked on Capitol Hill for several years, serving in both policy and communications roles. He worked for Rep. Stephen Fincher (TN-08), Rep. Chuck Fleischmann (TN-03), and Sen. Kay Bailey Hutchison (TX). John advised on a range of issues including commerce, financial services, homeland security, judiciary, labor, telecommunication, trade, and transportation. He also served as a campaign manager for a congressional campaign. Shea graduated from the University of Memphis with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and a Minor in Public Relations.