

Alice Namuli Blazevic

Partner with Katende, Ssempebwa & Co Advocates

Alice has experience in international commercial transactions and alternative dispute resolution. She has been involved in several Mergers & Acquisitions and Competition Law matters. She has advised various large multinational ventures within Uganda, East Africa, South Africa, West Africa, Europe and North America.

Furthermore, Alice has advised numerous clients in the energy sector (oil and gas), banking and financial services, as well as various sectors of the advertising industry and airline industry.

Alice has also acted as a legal consultant in a number of Government of Uganda and World Bank advisory projects, majorly handling the regulatory aspects of the transactions. A case in point is the ongoing Government of Uganda and the World Bank project; upgrading of all major road networks in Uganda.

Alice is currently the Vice President of Uganda Law Society.

She also serves as the Uganda Country Leader for Legal Business Women For Africa (LABFA), a multi-jurisdictional network of women transactional lawyers and corporate leaders in Africa and beyond.

Alice has practiced law for over 12 years.