

Pedro Guimarães

Partner

FCB Sociedade de Advogados

pgg@fcblegal.com

Pedro Guimarães, degree in Law in 1995 from the University of Durham, joined FCB in 1997 and became a Partner in 2006.

Coordinates the Firm's Energy & Natural Resources Department. Also works in the Corporate, Commercial and M&A Department.

In 1996 attended the Bar Vocational Court at the Inns of Court School of Law. He was approved in an equivalence exam in Law at the Faculdade de Direito de Lisboa.

For almost 15 years, Pedro Guimarães has been highlighted as a Leading Lawyer, whose strong experience and knowledge in complex and multijurisdictional projects led to the recognition and recommendation in several international legal directories. Extremely experienced in cross-border M&A and Corporate restructuring on behalf of clients from technology and energy sectors, clients highlight Pedro's proactivity and sound advice as his main strengths as well as his international network.