

Hogan Lovells

A leading global legal practice for a changing world

Hogan Lovells is a global legal powerhouse that helps corporations, financial institutions, and governments across the spectrum of their business and legal issues globally and locally. We have around 2,500 lawyers operating out of more than 40 offices in the United States, Europe, Latin America, Africa, the Middle East, and Asia.

Hogan Lovells offers:

- an exceptional, high quality transatlantic capability, with extensive reach into the world's commercial and financial centers;
- particular and distinctive strengths in the areas of government and regulatory, litigation and arbitration, corporate, finance, and intellectual property; and
- access to a significant depth of knowledge and resource in many major industry sectors including hotels and leisure, telecommunications, media and technology, energy and natural resources, infrastructure, financial services, life sciences and healthcare, consumer, and real estate.

Our practice breadth, geographical reach, and industry knowledge provide us with insights into the issues that affect our clients most deeply and enable us to provide high quality business-oriented legal advice to assist them in achieving their commercial goals.

Because the world changes

Whether you are a multinational organization or focused primarily on a single market, a borrower or an investor, regulator or public sector body, the rules of the game change fast. Globalization, new competitors from growing economies, massive shifts in the availability and sources of capital, deregulation and reregulation, and the impact of new technologies continually alter the business landscape.

In a world where both business risks and business opportunities are constantly evolving, we believe that there is a need for a high quality law practice that sees the whole picture and is dedicated – and geared – to helping clients across the spectrum of their critical business and legal issues. Hogan Lovells exists to help clients with all their most important matters around the world. We believe that our ability to see business from all perspectives allows us to help clients effectively in today's – and tomorrow's – challenging business climate.

Insights and solutions

Our commercial and regulatory work gives us the insights and business edge that complements our work on transactions and disputes. We listen to our clients, tailoring our advice based on a deep understanding of their needs. This, combined with our knowledge of markets and industry sectors, provides the foundation for our advice.

We provide a partner-led service to ensure the highest quality and have a track record in finding cost-effective answers, putting in place, for some projects, outsourcing arrangements that allow us to meet those needs.

All this is achieved with the close involvement of the client and with us taking responsibility for the work.

A different kind of global legal practice

Hogan Lovells is known for its strong teamwork and collegiality, with a reputation for being a good place to work with great people to work with. This collaborative culture is at the heart of our offering.

Our style is unstuffy, service focused, and friendly. We are proud that clients tell us that not only do they regard our work highly, they like working with us and see us as an extension of their teams.

Our culture is underpinned by shared values, already strongly established in our predecessor firms. These are:

- Clients come first
- Excellence in all we do
- One team worldwide
- Commitment to our firm's success
- Good citizenship.

The right people with the right attitude

Hogan Lovells draws strength from its diversity. We recruit from a wide variety of backgrounds, seeking out the best and those with the highest potential and we invest in their development. We believe that people will thrive in an environment that supports achievement and contribution inside and outside the office and which rewards teamwork. And most of all, this helps us deliver the best possible service to our clients.

Inside the community – not outside

Hogan Lovells has a strong commitment to good citizenship and community service that goes back for decades.

Across all our offices around the world our people – whatever their position – take an active role in areas such as pro bono, diversity, the environment, community fundraising, and charitable giving. We are as dedicated to community work as much as we are to our client work. Although we win awards for our work in this area, we measure our success on the basis of the difference our work makes – whether assisting charities around the world, working with former service men and women to obtain compensation for their injuries, or monitoring and reducing our own impact on the environment. In addition to direct support and charitable giving by individuals and the business, we also provide match-funding for charitable fundraising activities. In some instances, we work alongside our clients on their corporate responsibility activities, and we often invite clients to get involved with our own initiatives, whether in charitable giving or pro bono work. Where appropriate, we are eager to partner with our clients in whatever way we can – we see it as being as important for building and maintaining our relationship with them as the legal work we provide.
